The screenshot shows the IBM Academic Initiative website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the IBM logo, the text 'IBM Academic Initiative', and links for 'Technology', 'Usage terms', 'Additional Resources', and 'Support'. Below the navigation bar is a large banner image of students in a classroom. The main heading is 'IBM Academic Initiative'. Below the heading is a paragraph of text: 'Harness the power of IBM. Get easy no-charge access to the tools you need to develop the next great thing. Enjoy powerful technical and strategic resources from IBM. Jump right in with cloud access to powerful services and the most prominent open-source computer technologies, or take advantage of hands-on resources that will teach you about data and analytics, Internet of Things, and security.' Below this is another paragraph: 'IBM Academic Initiative understands the unique pressures faced by academic institutions in adapting to the COVID-19 virus while keeping their students, faculty, and community safe. Read about some of the resources available to our users to supplement their education.' At the bottom of the banner area, there is a call to action: 'Get access today to the same tools used in the enterprise.' followed by a blue button with the text 'Register now →'. To the right of this button is the text 'Already registered? Log in →'. A red arrow points from the text in step 2 of the instructions to the 'Register now' button, which is also circled in red.
