Summary

In this study, I studied a Hetare-character and analyzed it. With Hetare-character, I point at a character symbolized by episode to lack manliness, Hetare episode.

This is the characteristic which can be added also to other existing characters which are not Hetare. Since this characteristic can be added by episode. A Hetare-character is effective in order to take in the younger age group's consciousness. It is because each characteristic of a present-day young man and A Hetare-character is very near.
